#LI-Hybrid

About the Role:

Step into a role where strategy drives real patient impact. As Senior Marketing Manager, you will localize and execute Therapeutic Area strategy, lead omnichannel engagement, and define the go-to-market model. You will align cross-functional teams to deliver the One Brand Plan, owning the full brand lifecycle from pre- to post-launch while driving sustainable growth and business impact.

About the Role

Key responsibilities:

- Localize and execute Therapeutic Area brand strategy aligned with global direction to drive growth and patient impact.
- Design and deliver omnichannel campaigns and customer journeys using segmentation, insights, and global content reuse.
- Define go-to-market model, customer segmentation, and marketing mix to optimize reach, relevance, and investment impact.
- Translate strategy into tactical plans, lead forecasting, and drive performance reviews and launch readiness.
- Lead execution of marketing programs including digital campaigns, content deployment, and healthcare professional engagement initiatives.
- Build strong cross-functional alignment across Medical, Sales, and Value & Access to deliver business results.
- Drive a high-performance culture through leadership, coaching, and continuous capability building within the brand team.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in Science, Business, Marketing, or a related field.
- Proven marketing experience in oncology portfolios within the pharmaceutical or healthcare industry; sales experience is an advantage.
- Demonstrated success in product launches across the brand lifecycle.
- Strong analytical and strategic thinking skills, with the ability to innovate and challenge conventional approaches.
- Excellent communication and negotiation skills with the ability to influence cross-functional stakeholders.
- Strong project management capabilities, with experience driving complex initiatives from planning through execution.
- Experience in healthcare system strengthening is an advantage.

Commitment to Diversity and Inclusion
