Step into a pivotal role at the heart of Novartis' growth strategy, where you will lead and shape high-impact transactions that define the future of our portfolio. As Director, M&A Transactions, you will drive the end-to-end execution of complex deals, partnering across global functions to unlock external innovation, inform critical capital allocation decisions, and deliver sustained value creation. This is a uniquely high-visibility opportunity to influence enterprise strategy, operate at the forefront of deal-making, and play a central role in advancing Novartis' ambition to transform patient outcomes worldwide.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Lead end-to-end execution of mid-scale M&A transactions from deal strategy through signing and closing
- Define and drive deal strategy, including timelines, governance planning, and engagement with target companies
- Shape and negotiate commercial terms in partnership with finance, legal, tax, and cross-functional stakeholders
- Build and lead high-performing, cross-functional deal teams to support robust decision-making at senior governance levels
- Oversee corporate due diligence processes, ensuring comprehensive risk and value assessment across all functions
- Develop and present clear, data-driven recommendations to executive committees and Board-level stakeholders
- Partner with integration teams post-signing to ensure strategic value drivers are realized and successfully embedded

Essential Requirements

- Proven experience leading end-to-end mergers and acquisitions transactions across multiple deal structures and geographies within a pharmaceutical, healthcare or Biotech organization
- Strong strategic and commercial acumen with ability to align transactions to enterprise growth priorities
- Solid financial expertise, including financial modelling, valuation, and scenario planning
- Demonstrated ability to lead complex, cross-functional teams and influence senior stakeholders
- Deep understanding of risk assessment across strategic, financial, and operational dimensions
- Advanced degree in business, finance, or life sciences

Novartis Compensation Summary:

The salary for this position is expected to range between 176000-327000 USD per year.

The final salary offered is determined based on factors like, but not limited to, relevant skills and experience, and upon joining Novartis will be reviewed periodically.

Novartis may change the published salary range based on company and market factors.

Your compensation will include a performance-based cash incentive and, depending on the level of the role, eligibility to be considered for annual equity awards.

Why Novartis: Helping people with disease and their families takes more than innovative science. It takes a community of smart, passionate people like you.

Collaborating, supporting and inspiring each other. Combining to achieve breakthroughs that change patients' lives. Ready to create a brighter future together?
