#LI-Hybrid

Location: INSURGENTES, Mexico

Relocation Support: This role is based in INSURGENTES, Mexico. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support: please only apply if accessible.

Imagine shaping the future of Commercial IT across the Americas while partnering directly with senior leaders to drive strategic impact at scale. As Associate Director, DD&IT US&I Americas Portfolio, you will play a pivotal role in aligning technology investments, product roadmaps, and business priorities across key markets including the United States, Brazil, Canada, and Mexico. This is a unique opportunity to influence regional strategy, lead portfolio governance, enhance organizational effectiveness, and enable innovation that delivers measurable business value. If you thrive at the intersection of strategy, operations, leadership, and transformation, we invite you to help accelerate Novartis' digital ambitions across the Americas.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Partner with regional leadership to drive strategic priorities, governance, and organizational effectiveness.
- Lead portfolio and demand management governance across the Americas Commercial Information Technology organization.
- Align technology investments, business priorities, and delivery roadmaps to maximize business value.
- Consolidate and maintain visibility of product roadmaps across key Americas markets.
- Facilitate portfolio prioritization discussions and support informed executive decision-making.
- Drive standardized ways of working across countries, functions, and product teams.
- Coordinate planning cycles, governance forums, leadership meetings, and operational reviews.
- Deliver executive reporting, portfolio analytics, and actionable business insights.
- Lead continuous improvement, productivity, and transformation initiatives across the region.
- Develop scalable governance frameworks and best practices for global adoption.

Essential Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Information Technology, Business Administration, Engineering, Finance, or a related field.
- Extensive experience in portfolio management, demand management, project management office, or technology governance.
- Proven ability to influence senior stakeholders across complex global matrix organizations.
- Strong experience driving strategic planning, prioritization, governance, and operational excellence initiatives.
- Demonstrated success leading organizational change, transformation programs, and adoption of new ways of working.
- Excellent analytical, executive communication, and cross-functional collaboration skills.
