Shape how global clinical trials move forward. As CTA/CTR Team Lead, you'll lead and develop a global regulatory team responsible for delivering high-quality, compliant and timely clinical trial submissions and approvals. You'll combine people leadership with regulatory expertise, building strong partnerships across the organisation while driving smarter ways of working through simplification, continuous improvement and automation. It's an opportunity to develop talent, influence how we work and help build a more agile, future-ready Regulatory Affairs organisation.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Lead and develop a global regulatory team delivering high-quality, compliant and timely clinical trial submissions and approvals.
- Coach and support team members, building capability and enabling professional growth.
- Allocate resources effectively across the assigned portfolio, balancing priorities and business needs.
- Drive process improvement, simplification and automation to strengthen operational excellence.
- Build strong, customer-focused relationships with key stakeholders and act on feedback.
- Foster collaboration and knowledge sharing across Regulatory Affairs and global teams.
- Champion change and role-model Novartis culture, values and behaviours.

Essential Requirements

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in a science-related discipline, with relevant regulatory experience and demonstrated capability.
- Substantial knowledge and experience of global regulations, guidelines and processes supporting regulatory clinical trial activities.
- Demonstrated experience leading regulatory professionals, with strong people management, coaching and development capabilities.
- Strong experience in strategic planning, regulatory review, compliance, submissions and execution.
- Demonstrated ability to drive process improvement, simplification, automation and operational excellence.
- Strong communication, influencing and problem-solving skills within complex, cross-functional and international environments.

Benefits & Rewards

At Novartis, we're committed to reimagining medicine together - and rewarding the people who make it happen.

Expected Annual Base Salary Range for role: £67,900 to £126,100

The base salary offered is determined based on gender-neutral objectives, such as relevant skills, competencies and experience in accordance with the Novartis pay setting policy and upon joining Novartis will be reviewed periodically.

In addition to your base salary, you may be eligible for a performance-based bonus depending on certain performance parameters.

The rewards of being part of our team go far beyond base pay and incentives. We also offer a variety of competitive benefits in kind to help you thrive personally and professionally, such as insurance plans, retirement plans, wellbeing resources and global recognition programs. In addition, we provide flexible and hybrid working options, where possible, and minimum 14 weeks paid parental leave.

You may be eligible for a company vehicle or a car allowance in accordance with the applicable local Novartis policies and guidelines.

Pay equity is a fundamental principle of our employment policy and reflects our commitment to create a diverse, equitable and inclusive environment that treats all employees with dignity and respect, as outlined in our Code of Ethics.
