About the Role

At Novartis, our purpose is to reimagine medicine to improve and extend people's lives. As a Key Account Manager in Dermatology, you will be a leading driver of customer engagement and sales performance across a high-impact territory.

As the face of Novartis to healthcare professionals and key stakeholders, you will build trusted partnerships and deliver tailored solutions that create value for customers, patients, and the healthcare system. Leveraging a deep understanding of the dermatology landscape, you will identify opportunities, execute account plans, and drive sustainable business growth while ensuring the highest standards of ethics and compliance.

This is a field-based role covering the South West England.  Successful candidates must reside within the territory.

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and implement comprehensive territory and account plans to achieve business objectives and maximize opportunities.
- Deliver impactful customer engagement activities, including educational meetings, promotional initiatives, presentations, and marketing campaigns.
- Achieve agreed sales, performance, productivity, and coverage targets within budget and timelines.
- Build and maintain strong relationships with key stakeholders across hospitals, specialist centres, and integrated care networks.
- Develop a deep understanding of the dermatology and specialist healthcare landscape, identifying emerging opportunities and challenges.
- Maintain expert knowledge of Novartis products, therapeutic areas, customer needs, competitor activity, and market trends.
- Deliver a best-in-class customer experience through effective multi-channel engagement approaches.
- Provide valuable field insights to support forecasting, resource allocation, and promotional investment decisions.
- Collaborate effectively with cross-functional colleagues to deliver shared business and patient-focused goals.

Essential Requirements

- Proven experience within the pharmaceutical industry, ideally in a specialist sales, hospital sales, or Key Account Management position.
- Strong commercial acumen with a track record of delivering results and exceeding targets.
- Growth mindset with a passion for continuous learning and development.
- Excellent communication, influencing, and relationship-building skills.
- Customer-focused approach with the ability to understand and address stakeholder needs.
- Strong patient-centric mindset and commitment to improving patient outcomes.
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively within cross-functional teams.
- ABPI qualified
- Full right to work in the United Kingdom.

Desirable Requirements

- Experience in Dermatology, Immunology, or other specialist therapeutic areas.
- Knowledge of NHS structures, hospital networks, and market access pathways.
- Experience working with specialist healthcare professionals and multidisciplinary stakeholder groups.
