Сводка

This is a fixed-term opportunity covering a maternity leave.

At Novartis, we are reimagining how we engage customers through personalized, data-driven and omnichannel experiences.

As Content Activation & OCE Manager, you will play a critical role in transforming approved content into seamless customer experiences across field and digital channels. Working within the Execution Excellence organization, you will partner with Commercial, Medical Affairs, Value & Access and Communications teams to ensure content is activation-ready, customer journeys are effectively orchestrated, and omnichannel excellence becomes a competitive advantage.

This role offers a unique opportunity to gain broad exposure across Commercial, Medical Affairs and Value & Access, while shaping customer engagement and digital excellence in a highly dynamic environment.

We are looking for a collaborative, hands-on professional who combines strong digital and omnichannel capabilities with an analytical mindset and a passion for delivering excellent customer experiences through effective execution.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

Content Activation Excellence

- Define and maintain standards, processes and ways of working for content activation.
- Ensure content is prepared for deployment across platforms such as CRM/Veeva Vault, Drupal and marketing automation solutions.
- Drive consistency, quality and compliance across content activation activities.
- Partner with cross-functional teams to maximize reuse of global content and accelerate execution.

Omnichannel Orchestration

- Translate customer journeys into effective channel plans and engagement strategies.
- Support the design and execution of omnichannel campaigns across field and digital channels.
- Guide teams on best practices for channel orchestration, content deployment and customer engagement.
- Monitor performance and identify opportunities to enhance customer experience.

Data-Driven Continuous Improvement

- Establish governance and standards for content tagging and campaign execution.
- Collaborate with data, analytics and technology teams to enable meaningful performance reporting.
- Leverage insights to optimize customer journeys, channel effectiveness and content utilization.

Capability Building & Collaboration

- Develop and deliver training and capability-building initiatives for key stakeholders.
- Act as a trusted advisor to brand teams and functional leaders.
- Drive adoption of omnichannel ways of working and continuous improvement across the organization.

What You'll Bring

Essential

- Bachelor's degree in Business, Marketing, Life Sciences or a related field.
- 5+ years of experience in Commercial Excellence, Omnichannel Marketing, Marketing Operations or similar roles.
- Strong understanding of customer engagement and digital channels.
- Proven experience working with CRM/Veeva Vault, marketing automation and content management platforms.

- Excellent stakeholder management and cross-functional collaboration skills.
- Analytical mindset with the ability to translate data into actionable recommendations.
- Fluent English.

Preferred

- Experience within the pharmaceutical, healthcare or other highly regulated industries.
- Proven track record in designing and executing omnichannel campaigns across field and digital channels.
- Hands-on approach, with the ability to balance strategic thinking and day-to-day execution.
- Experience driving adoption of new processes, technologies or ways of working in a cross-functional environment.
- Familiarity with performance dashboards and reporting tools for customer engagement metrics.
